As the days grow longer and the first signs of spring begin to bloom, I'm delighted to welcome this vibrant new season to our Montvale community. After a long winter, spring offers us a renewed sense of energy, optimism, and connection with one another.

One of the highlights of the season is the opening of our community garden. This cherished space will bring neighbors together, whether you're a seasoned gardener or trying it for the first time. It's more than just a place to grow flowers and fresh produce, it's a place where friendships take root and community spirit thrives.

The Mayor's Corner

I encourage anyone interested to consider reserving a plot or simply stopping by to enjoy the space and meet fellow residents.

Spring also brings a full calendar of activities for all ages. From outdoor recreation programs and youth sports to seasonal events and local gatherings, there are many opportunities to get involved and make the most of the warmer weather. Our parks and public spaces will soon be buzzing with activity, and I hope you'll take time to enjoy everything Montvale has to offer.

As always, I am grateful for the strong sense of community that makes our town so special. Let's embrace this season of growth and renewal together. Wishing you and your family a wonderful and refreshing spring.

Mayor Michael Ghassali

Food Addicts

Are you struggling with food? Food Addicts in Recovery Anonymous (FA) can help! FA is a free program based on the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous (AA). There are no dues, fees, or weigh-ins at FA meetings. FA is a fellowship of individuals who, through shared experience and mutual support, are recovering from the disease of food addiction. FA members are people of all ages from every part of the world, people who were morbidly obese, substantially underweight, or even at a normal weight. Regardless of their size, they were tormented by cravings, dieting, bulimia, and/or an obsession with exercise. In FA they found hope and recovery, and so can you. There is a free weekly meeting every Tuesday evening from 7-8:30PM at the Montvale Senior Center, located at One Memorial Drive in Montvale. If you have any questions, feel free to call or text Susan at 978-886-5469, or Sally at 201-693-0411, or check out the FA website at www.foodaddicts.org.
